

WHIST DRIVE HELD BY WALTER MUSSON CHAPTER OF I.O.G.E.

Very Successful Function Held In Washburn's Hall Last Week;
Good Crowd Present

It was truly a merry gathering last week in Washburn's hall when the Walter Musson Chapter staged a whist party. The hall was comfortably filled in play with many guests in addition and the prizes were keenly contested. The prize winners were:

Ladies—1st, Mrs. Siddall, 119; 2nd, Mrs. Horne, 118; 3rd, Mrs. E. Turner, 117; consolation, Miss E. Fraser.

Gents—1st, Mr. G. Siddall, 121; 2nd, Mr. F. Pauling, 116; 3rd, Mrs. G. Hudson, 114; 4th, Mr. H. Pauling.

A delightful lunch was served at the close of play.

The ladies of this organization wish to thank all those who assisted in making the evening so pleasant and successful.

Liquor Export Houses Pass Out March 1, 1923

Alberta Not Affected by Dry Order for Saskatchewan; Alberta Date Set

Liquor export houses in Alberta will not be affected by the action reported from Ottawa to the effect that an order-in-council has been passed, Saskatchewan. The government in that province had asked the Dominion authorities to cancel the licenses of the liquor companies, but in Alberta, the provincial government has the power in its own hands and has already moved in the direction of a closure on all export business.

March 1 is the date on which liquor export houses in that province are to pass out. There are now 10 such companies doing business in the province of which only one, the Glasgow, Wine and Spirit Company is in Edmonton. Calgary has five of the ten exporting concerns, Lethbridge three and Medicine Hat one.

Mr. H. Pigeon left on Sunday for a visit to friends in the States.

REAL CHINESE GARDEN IS USED IN PHOTOPLAY

Oriental Restaurant Set One of the Largest Ever Built For Theatre Production.

One of the largest oriental sets ever constructed at Vitaphone's West Coast studios was built for the Antonio Moreno picture, "The Secret of the Hills," which will be shown at the Elite theatre on Friday and Saturday this week. It is an unusual story, full of action and based on the original novel by William Garret called "The Secret of the Hills," published by Jarrold's, London. It was made under the direction of Chester Bennett, Director Bennett, who has visited the orient several times, achieved not for his elaborate Far Eastern atmosphere whenever the story required it.

For this production he obtained a real Chinese orchestra of six pieces. Native Chinese girls, rarely seen in pictures, are used to lend naturalness and atmosphere. They serve as waitresses and cloak girls.

Some beautiful Chinese silk embroidery was obtained for the hanging and expensive Chinese lanterns give a pleasing effect to the set.

In the centre of the dining hall is an elaborate Chinese fountain, around which is an oriental garden effect. Rare pieces of Chinese pottery and teak-wood stands finish the set. A screen of Chinese carving in scroll effect of gold leaf also gives atmosphere to the set in which some of the most important action of the production takes place. It is in this scene that Mr. Moreno first meets the heroine and a mix-up in overcoats takes place.

The changing of overcoats plunges the hero into mystery from which it seems almost impossible for him to extricate himself. With the aid of a friend, an actor, the hero attempts to solve the mystery single handed and succeeds far better than he expected.

In the end he wins the girl for whom he has placed his personal safety in jeopardy.

LOCAL NOTES

Miss M. Donovan journeyed to Edmonton on Saturday for the week end.

Miss Jessie McClymont left to spend the winter in the east last week end.

Dr. H. Lockwood left on Friday last with his family and their carload of effects.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Tom Crampin who has been on the sick list for quite a while is now some better.

Our range of Children's. Worsteds in black or cardinal is now complete; also Baby Blankets, Wool Poniets and Coats—Women's Speciality Shop.

GREENSHIELD GEMS

We regret to learn that Mrs. D. Ralston is no better. She was taken to Edmonton last week to receive hospital treatment and we hope for a favorable result.

Mr. Roy Carl and family have taken up residence on the Wilson farm for the winter.

Miss Lexie Morrison has taken the position recently vacated by Miss J. McClymont at the Cheetham store.

Mr. H. Cheetham, informs us by correspondent that he accidentally took the wrong road on his recent trip to Lloydminster. After descending a real steep hill, Harry found that the bus would not make the climb up. He walked several miles in search of gas, but returned empty-handed—and he then backed the car up the hill, and hurried home!

Skating seems to retain its popularity around here. Two, more enjoyable parties were held at Brown's lake during the past week. Andy McLean was M.C. and handled the job splendidly.

The pupils at Holmstead school have now served hot cocoa each noon-hour. The boys claim superiority in making the beverage, so that a civil war is imminent. We back the girls!

We learn that Mr. Howard Gibson has become the proud possessor of a dandy motor truck.

Holmstead Inspector Cunningham has been making another of his periodic visits to the neighborhood.

Town Rink Soon To Be Ready For Skaters

The special Rink Committee of the Town Council, consisting of Councilors Davison, Fish and Yeager, met on Monday last when they had before them a long list of applications for the post of rink manager for the season.

After carefully studying these, the committee finally came to a decision to appoint Mr. A. Normandin to the post and he was immediately notified.

Mr. Normandin at once got busy on the job, and is working tooth and nail to get things in shape, in the hope that within the next ten days or so the ice will be in shape for devotees of this delightful winter pastime.

Season tickets are now available at the office of the town secretary or from the rink man.

VISIT OF HIGH OFFICIALS TO LOCAL LODGE OF REBEKAHS

Mrs. C. McPherson, of Ryley, Pays Annual Visit as President of The Rebekah Assembly

There was a large turnout of the local lodge of the Daughters of Rebekah at their meeting on Thursday last when the assemblage was honored by an official visit from the president of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, Mrs. Clara McPherson, of Ryley.

During the evening the degree peculiar to this order was exemplified by the staff, and their work was very favorably commented upon by the guest of the evening.

Mrs. H. W. McLeod, D.D.P. of the local lodge, Mrs. W. McConachie, D.D.P. of Edmonton, Mrs. T. Saul, D.D.P. of Chauvin, and a number of sisters from the latter lodge were also present and each spoke a few words.

The remarks of the President and the work of the Order and Rebekah work particularly were listened to with attention and profit. Refreshments at the close were enjoyed by all.

During their stay in town, Mrs. McPherson and Mrs. McConachie were guests at the home of Mrs. W. Huntingford, the noble grand of the local lodge.

WHEAT LOADS FOR OCTOBER FAR OVER 1921

Shipments To U. S. Greater In Quantity But Lower Value Than Year Ago

Canada's exports of wheat during the month of October last nearly doubled, both quantity and value, her exports for the month of October last year, according to a bulletin on export issued tonight by the Dominion bureau of statistics. Exports during the month of October, 1922 were 37,593,074 bushels valued at $40,017,249, as against 21,303,579 bushels valued at $27,616,632 in the same month last year. Total flour exports for October were 855,232 barrels, valued at $4,666,215, as against 691,167 barrels valued at $4,710,025 in October last year.

Exports of wheat to the United States during last month were greater in quantity but lower in value than during the corresponding month last year. A total of 1,716,020 bushels of wheat valued at $1,659,612, went to American users during October, 1922 while in the same month last year purchases amounted to 1,650,045 bushels, valued at $2,109,962 in the two months ended October 31, 1922, however the value of wheat shipped to the United States was higher than during the corresponding two months of 1921. In September-October 1921 Canada exported to United States 3,445,228 bushels valued at $2,399,826 while in the last two months 2,531,053 bushels were exported to United States at a valuation of $2,487,097.

The inspector under the Workmen's Compensation Act was in town last week, giving the town's electrical equipment and pole line the "Once-over."

Washburn Will Run Attractive Special

The old song "The wind blew through his whiskers" need not be exemplified many more days, for Mr. W. Washburn is out to beat the H. C. of L. on the razor stuff!

By will seen from our advertising columns, he has arranged for the whole week to have a special sale of Gillette safety razors at such a price as will make everyone carrying more than a "one-day growth" feel out of place.

The proposition shows enterprise on the part of our local merchant and with $5 safety at the price of 95c there should be quite a rush for these necessary accessories to cleanliness.

NEW SCHOOL FOR FEEBLE MINDED OPENS IN SPRING

Alberta Health Ministry Has About 200 Inmates for New Institution

The new home for mental defectives which the government is building just outside of Edmonton will be opened, according to Hon. R. G. Reid, minister of health, early in the new year. Construction operations on the two dormitory units is now practically completed, and the plant will soon be ready for the department of public works, which has been building it, to turn over to the health ministry.

About 200 inmates for the new institution are now in waiting. It is stated that these include the forty or more cases already being treated in the temporary home on the south side, and the others are in private homes throughout the province, being mostly children still under the care of their parents.

Dr. W. J. McAllister, recently appointed superintendent of the Edmonton home, is now taking some special training for the work in the Massachusetts School for Feeble-Minded at Waverly, considered one of the leading institutions of its kind in the world, and will return to Edmonton in good time for organizing the work here and opening the home. A staff to work with him will be appointed in due course.

It is the intention of the government, says Reid, to establish manual training classes for the inmates of the home, and occupational work will be a strong feature of the system. Whether or not it will be possible to undertake much, if anything, in the way of general education, work in the new plant, but plans are being made for the full amount of training that the defectives most of whom will be children and young people, will be capable of taking.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

We are not responsible for opinions expressed by correspondents

Dear Mr. Editor:

Many of those who signed the recent petition supposed that they were asking for 4 per cent beer.

The petition reads: "Not to exceed 4 per cent alcoholic content by weight."

It has been the custom to refer to alcohol content by volume but alcohol being lighter than water, it sounds less to say "by weight." Four per cent Alcoholic content by weight means 8-1/2 per cent proof spirits.

So if the petitioners had their will, we should have pre-war, open bar conditions, the only difference being that the consumer would pay more for his drinks. So there would be less money to spend on home and family necessities.

However rich the resources of a country, its greatest asset is still its citizens and no true Canadian wants the type of citizen that the open bar develops—a leader ready to call his vote for a glass of beer.

A many a real statesman has been lost to our country in the past because rich natural endowments were discouraged and lives ruined by habits which started in these same bar rooms.

Parents and elders generally aim to give the coming generation greater advantages than they had and we rejoice that it is within our power to hand down to them a province free from the temptations of the open bar.

WEDDING BELLS

KELLEY-MADDOCKS

An event which created much interest in Edmonton and the surrounding district was the wedding of Miss Marguerite Alice Maddocks, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Maddocks, to Mr. John William Kelley.

The marriage ceremony took place at 3 p.m. on Wednesday, November 15 in the church at Edmonton. The weather could not have been better for the occasion and the church which had been prettily decorated for the ceremony, was packed to overflowing with the relatives and friends of the bride and groom.

As a preliminary, Miss V. Ptolemy played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, and at the conclusion of the ceremony Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was beautifully rendered. During the signing of the register, Mrs. G. L. Hudson, of Wainwright, sang "My World" very effectively.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a charming gown of white satin, having panels of net with tiny satin lilies. Her veil of Brussels net, beautifully embroidered and trimmed with orange blossom was the gift of her mother, and she carried a bouquet of carnations and sweethearts roses.

The officiating minister was the Rev. Edward H. Maddocks, brother of the bride.

Miss Merle Mabey, the bridesmaid, wore a beautiful gown of yellow satin with an overdress of crepe de chene, and a large black picture hat with silver trimming. Her flowers were yellow chrysanthemums tied with pink chiffon and were the gift of the bridegroom. Mr. Ronald Hullah also performed the duties of best man, and his souvenir of the occasion was a set of gold cuff links and studs. The gift to the bridesmaid was a pair of pearl earrings.

The bride's mother was becomingly attired in black Canton crepe trimmed with mauve, while Mrs. Kelley, mother of the groom, wore a handsome gown of black headed satin relieved by touches of blue.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the rectory. The table was tastefully decorated, and a charming feature of the repast was the cutting of the magnificent wedding cake by the bride.

The guests included Mrs. Sarah Kelley and Mr. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Kelley and daughter Hazel, Mr. A. Lawrence, and Mrs. G. L. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Sawyer and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hudson, Miss V. D. Ptolemy and Mr. H. C. Boyd.

The happy pair left on the evening train for Edmonton, the bride traveling in a smart fur coat and black velvet hat trimmed with gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley will be at home after December 1st at Lakeside farm, south of Edmonton.

OVERSEAS MEN STAGE NEAR RIOT OVER WINNING WAR

Detroit Newspaper Containing Statement by Former Crown Prince of Germany Is Seized

Windsor, Ont., Following refusal of the Dominion government to act on excluding a Detroit Sunday paper, alleged to contain an article offensive to Canadians, copies of the paper were seized about the streets of the border cities by a mob made up largely of former soldiers Saturday evening.

On announcement that the articles in question would appear in the Sunday edition, local veterans sent protests to the Dominion command of the G.W.V.A. and also to the minister of customs at Ottawa, asking that the paper be barred from Canada. A reply was received to the effect that the articles in question were considered to be harmless.

When the first truckload of papers arrived on the ferry here about 7 p.m. they were allowed to pass unmolested, but the next consignment was refused permission to land and forced to return to Detroit. Later truck loads were seized and some of the papers thrown into the river, while others were scattered about the streets.

After considerable agitation the mob desisted and the papers were sold on the streets as usual, some of them minus the section containing the article objected to.

The article in question was the first in a series of "Who Won the War?" In Saturday's article, the former crown prince of Germany was quoted as saying that the American soldiers were the ones who defeated the German army.

H. Bruner Opens Up New Town Industry

This week sees the completion of the installation of the new battery service station which has been opened up at the Ford garage by Mr. H. J. Bruner.

The plant is now all fixed up on the same plan as the city stations and the same class of service is guaranteed by the proprietor. It is replete with battery tanks, electric fans, discharging set, acetylene tanks, lead burner and "what-not" and battery owners may rest assured that everything possible will be done to "put the old box" right and prolong its life.

Arrangements have also been made to store batteries through the winter months either in the wet or dry state.

MRS. BLACK'S PINK TEA IS SUCCESS AT TRAFALGAR SCHOOL

Outstanding Item In Very Lengthy Programme; Great Credit Due To School Teacher

Trafalgar schoolhouse was packed last Friday evening in spite of the cold weather. The occasion was a home talent entertainment under the auspices of the Methodist church.

The programme was a very long one and of excellent quality, and great credit was reflected not only upon those responsible for the preparation of the items, but also upon the natural gifts of the local talent.

A detailed report of the efforts of all the children would be invidious, so less than 29 numbers being presented in all. Messrs. Patterson and Gunn presented a laughable sketch and a very clever drill was put on by the Trafalgar school children. Then a sketch called "The somnambulist" was given, and in this Art. Patterson played very comically the part of the sleep-walking Irishman.

The event of the evening was "Mrs. Black's Pink Tea," conducted by a poem during the official membership number of the ladies. As a matter of fact we don't know who they were, but we can't help but think they were a very clever and amusing group, and the audience showed their appreciation of the effort in an uncertain manner.

Delightful refreshments brought up all present voted the affair the best yet.

The best thanks of all are due to the ladies who served on the programme and who were re-elected committees; they were worked tirelessly and with great ability. Especial thanks are due to Mrs. Barber, the teacher at Trafalgar school, who made a very large contribution to the success of the programme both by training the children and by being one of the best laughs in "Mrs. Black's Pink Tea."

LOCAL NOTES

Mr. M. Boyer was away on a jury in the city last week.

Miss L. Matthews, of Jarrold, was a guest at the Hart home last week.

We learn that Mr. Fred Cope has been appointed land inspector by the Associated Mortgages Co.

On Thursday last Mrs. H. W. McLeod entertained at dinner in honor of Mrs. C. McPherson, the president of the Rebekah Assembly.

We understand that arrangements have been made whereby the Tory blacksmith shop has passed into the hands of Mr. D. Blain who will continue the business.

CROSSING THE BAR

JANET LOUISE

There passed away on Saturday morning last, at the age of six years, little Janet Louise.

The child was taken to the city on Friday night for an operation for appendicitis, which had stricken the sufferer very suddenly, but before relief could be obtained for her she had passed away.

The body was brought home on Saturday night's train and the funeral took place at the Catholic cemetery on Monday morning, Rev. Father Le-maire conducting the ceremony.

POLICE WARN PEOPLE REGARDING OLD GAG

A number of business men throughout this district have been receiving letters purporting to have been written by a Spanish prisoner in Barcelona, Spain, asking assistance to obtain his release and offering $120,000 reward. He claims to have $360,000 hidden in a trunk which will be divided one third to the party who assists in securing his release.

This is an old confidence game, and the police wish to notify the public that these letters which are posted at Barcelona, in Spain, are sent for the purpose of swindling people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sutherland were business visitors to the city last Friday.

St. Thomas W.A. Hold Annual Sale

Many and varied were the fancy and retail articles which were on display at the Annex on Saturday last on the occasion of the annual sale by the ladies of the W. A. Thomas' church.

In addition, a tempting display of home cooking was to hand, and the attendance of buyers was fairly steady during the sale.

The proceeds amounted to a little over $100, which must surely constitute a record for such sales; and the organization is to be congratulated on the wonderful success of the efforts of its members who worked so hard to attain the result. The W.A. thank all those who assisted in any way.

RED CROSS DRIVE HAS DATES EXTENDED UNTIL DECEMBER 15

On Account of Some Districts Not Having Completed Their Canvass Will Get Till December 15th

Dates for the Membership Enrollment and Finance Campaign of the Alberta Division, Canadian Red Cross, have been extended throughout the Province to admit of the canvass being made in those districts where it was impossible to arrange for the canvass during the official membership week. Districts which have not yet been able to organize their enrollment will be allowed until December 15th to complete the drive.

In Calgary, the canvassers met with great success. In many cases people were not prepared to join when the workers called, but those citizens who were called at the local office of the Society in order to join. One man wanted to know what the Red Cross was doing and when the Secretary briefly outlined the work to him, he made a $10 donation.

Information received from various sources indicates that although money is scarce, the people of the province are doing their best to give support to the Red Cross, and there is a very wide spread realization of the good work which is being done by the Society.

FIELD SECRETARY OF W.A. TO SPEAK HERE AT ST. THOMAS CH.

Lady Missionary From China Field Will Address Gatherings At St. Thomas' Church

Miss Dryer, a returned missionary from China, and who is acting at present as field secretary of the Women's Auxiliary work of the diocese of Saskatchewan, will give two special addresses in St. Thomas' (Ang.) church on Friday next (Nov. 24th).

The visitor will address the W.A. and all other ladies who may wish to be present in the church at 2:30 p.m., and at 8 o'clock a special service, open to everyone, will be held when Miss Dryer will be the speaker.

This talented lady has the reputation of being a very graceful and excellent speaker, and no one should miss the opportunity of hearing one who is not only an excellent missionary, but likewise a traveller of wide experience.

Minimum Wage Board Completes Work In Prov.

Minimum Wage Board Finishes Private Sitting In Alberta, Writes Report

The minimum wage board recently appointed by the provincial government has now completed its private sittings which during the past week went over the evidence gathered at its public meetings in the several industrial centres. A report embodying the board's findings and recommendations is being prepared and will be submitted to the minister of public works, who will then direct the minimum wage investigations are being conducted.

Chairman A. G. Browning says that the board has secured a mass of important information bearing on the administration of wage laws and the future of the province, and that the board's report will be a highly satisfactory and helpful one. It is understood that the minimum wage, based on the findings of the board will be introduced in the next session of the house.

BANFF GOLF COURSE
WELL PATRONISED

Over five thousand persons played over the golf course in Banff National Park during the season just closed according to a report recently received from the Park Superintendent at Banff.
Many prominent visitors from nearly every corner of the globe went over the links at "the top of the world," during the summer including: His Excellency Baron Byng of Vinny and Earl, Mr. Calvin Coolidge, vice-president of the United States, Sir Lionel Guillemard, Governor of the Straits Settlements, Baron Sanherg of Holland, Premier Greenfield of Alberta and Mr. Rodney C. Wood, Chief Boy Scout Representative of England.

With the assistance of the Branch of the Department of Agriculture, the officials at Banff will follow work this fall on the further improvement of the course. Owing to the severity of the weather during the early winter last year sections of the sod on the fairways and putting greens were winter killed. Certain species of bent grass and fescue, which have been introduced with marked success on golf courses in Eastern Canada and the United States, will be planted and it is expected that the greens and fairways will be in first class condition for next season's play.

At the present time Commissioner Clarke of the Seed Branch of the Department of Agriculture is endeavoring to secure a supply of the seed of the Prince Edward Island brown top more or less well developed bent grass, fine in texture and about the same as the Black Island bent grass in habits of growth. If the production of this grass can be stimulated sufficiently to make it available for golf courses, Commissioner Clarke states it will be the most satisfactory grass for fairways that can be obtained for the northern areas of Canada and the United States.

THE SCOUT LAW

Among the laws which the boys of a certain town promised to obey, were the following—

A Scout's honor is to be trusted.

A Scout is loyal to the King; to his Parents; His Country; and his Employers.

A Scout's duty is to be useful, and to help others.

A Scout is a friend to all, and a brother to every other Scout.

A Scout is courteous.

A Scout is a friend to animals.

A Scout obeys the orders of his Parents, without question.

A Scout smiles under all difficulties.

A Scout is thrifty.

A Scout is clean in thought and word, and deed.

Moral—The Boys are the prophecy of the next age.

WAINWRIGHT, ALBERTA NOVEMBER, 22nd, 1922.

NEWS AND ADVS. BOTH PROVE ATTRACTIVE.

A local newspaper is absolutely necessary to any community. It is the home paper that keeps the people of the community in touch with each other by giving them all the news of their own neighbourhood and district.
For that alone it is of value and is worth far more than the small subscription price. It keeps the local pride and progressive spirit aroused and in many varied ways is worth far more to a community than a community ever spends upon it. The daily paper with its large news service and quicker facilities, may in some instances, overshadow the weekly, but a weekly home paper fills a place in the hearts of the people that a daily cannot fill. It comes to your home as an old friend and tries while the daily enters as a stranger.

Then, again, with regard to the advertising, although each trader adopts his own method of selling his wares, yet he must have a means of bringing them to the consumer's notice. In the case, even, of Mr. Lloyd George's superior Welsh coats, these have to be placed before the people at fairs to have their merits known. And so it is with our merchants and businessmen—they must tell the community by means of the community mouthpiece, (the weekly paper) of their goods, or their business will suffer, for although it is of comparatively recent origin, it is now fully proven that the newspaper has become a chief agent in the making of sales by creating the desire for ownership.

DOING BEST FOR SELF
WILL HELP OTHERS

The plea for thinking of the other man, made by Mr. Balaban when addressing the Empire Club of Toronto, struck a responsive chord in that appreciative audience. And yet there is another side that requires consideration. Thinking of one's self, one's own problems, helps perhaps as nothing else does in bringing about better conditions.

When times are hard especially does every one need to concentrate on his own job. Working on that, so that it goes, does a great deal to make move the whole machinery of business.

When a retailer concentrates on his problems—his needs of making money —he gets costs down, sells at a price which attracts trade. He makes his business go; sells goods which add to the efficiency of the buyer. He keeps his own organization intact; sends invitations to wholesalers and manufacturers and directly and indirectly makes labor—creates buying power—assists in bringing prosperity.

Let the business man think of others, to the exclusion of himself, of his own financial interests, and it is inevitable under trying conditions that he will go out of business. But will follow the direct and indirect discharge of labor the slowing up of the business machinery because of this man's failure.

Doubtless the thing to do is what so many did during the war. Drive hard on their own business, and yet let their margin of time, thought and money to be used for the benefit of the point of bringing back sound conditions, the need of getting one's own business running at a fair profit stands first. Concentration on one's own job will do more than will bemoaning European conditions, more than laboring at the Government, at the labor men or capitalists.

SPEAKING
OF BANKS

The other day a farmer came into a Wainwright Bank. He wanted advance on his grain, and was willing to insure it in his granary on the farm.
He gave a statement of his affairs.
The matter was referred to Head Office, with the recommendation of the local manager attached. In due course the documents came back, with the authorization to make the loan.
Things were going along swimmingly.
Then, Mr. Manager made a few forward inquiries, and found that instead of 2000 bushels of Wheat there were 1150; and instead of 1000 bushels of Oats there were about 600. Naturally, it took about two minutes to notify Mr. Farmer that he had not been playing square, and that the deal was off.

The foregoing is at least one reason why a Bank proceeds upon the assumption that "things are not what they seem," when a farmer sits at one side of a table, and a banker at the other.

YOUR NEWSPAPER

Aside from the limited number of single-track minds found in every community, the people generally appreciate and accord liberal support to the local newspaper—that intimate medium through which is mirrored each week the collective community activities. Your home newspaper bridges the gap; its chronicle of local news and views complete circuit of information impossible to attain through any other medium of human locomotion or mechanical device. It brings the local community as vividly to the fireside as the morning sun reveals the surrounding landscape. It is a human institution, and therefore imperfect; but the courageous and sincere newspaper unflinchingly stands four-square for what it believes to be the ultimate good of its town and district and province and country. Your home newspaper endeavors to radiate development in trade, health, in the home, progress in civic affairs and goodwill in the intercourse between men. In the performance of its service it is bound to run counter to the view of some—often of many; but if it heeds to the line the chip of respect will not remain uncounted. Your newspaper, no matter what petty difference may arise is the friend and advocat of every good citizen; although it paramount aim must obviously be the better destiny of the citizenship as a whole.

Men may come and men may go; but your newspaper remains on. It rejoices in your successes and grieves in your adversities. It tries to inspire hope and cheerfulness and is the foe of hate jealousy and fear. Its mission is cooperative; its function kinesthetic; its service omnifarious. It welcomes suggestions and thrives on constructive criticism. The more you make use of your newspaper the more consistent you support it, the more its benefit will be revealed and the greater service it will be able to render for the increased prosperity of the field in which it labors. When you co-operate with your home newspaper you are not casting bread upon the waters of home progress—Swift current Herald.

ABOUT ADVERTISING

The Montreal Star makes an interesting and pointed business remark when it declares that "January's advertising helps June and June's will help December."

There is a world of truth, reason, and significance in this statement, and a little reflection will prove why this is so. Effective advertising must not be spasmodic but must be persistent. To hope for instant and sustained results from one or two advertisements is to expect the impossible as is though one hoped by attending school a day or two every six months to become an educated man. The one is as absurd as the other.

The wise advertiser is he who advertises regularly week in and week out and regards his initial advertisement as the builder regards his foundation—a basis for the permanent superstructure that is to rise, later—Kingston Standard.

EXTEND TIME FOR CHILDREN'S ESSAYS

The Canadian Forestry Association School Essay competition, which was to close on November 15th, has been extended until December first, in order to allow the school children of Alberta plenty of time to prepare their Essays for the prizes. Three money prizes are awarded to each province for the most intelligent essays received, and judgement will be on the basis not of the quantity of information a child may take from text books, but according to the diligence and earnestness of the juvenile conceptions.

The greatest interest has been stirred by this, contest in all parts of Canada and thousands of children's manuscripts are reaching the offices of the Canadian Forestry Association at Ottawa. Copies of the competition have been mailed to all the schools in Alberta.

On the River St. Lawrence in Canada, there is a point known as "Past Redemption Point" It is stated that when a boat has gone past that point it is impossible to row her back, so swift is the current which increases in rapidity towards the rapids, from which no hope of salvation is possible.

We have made arrangements with the E. H. Heath Co. Limited who publish the CANADIAN POWER FARMER whereby we are able to offer that farm magazine together with our own weekly at the one price for both papers.

The CANADIAN POWER FARMER is Western Canada's biggest farm monthly. It is now in its twentieth year, which means that it is thoroughly established throughout the West.
It deals with the mechanical side of the farm.
Every issue is full of helpful hints and experience on the operation of all kinds of farm machinery from a washing-machine to a tractor.
Its editorial staff consists of men thoroughly familiar with every branch of farming both from the practical and theoretical standpoint. Every month the magazine publishes experience sent in by readers. Many of these are short cut findings that are real money savers to farmers.

This offer may be withdrawn at any time.

BULLETIN FROM PROVINCIAL GOVT.

Government Buildings, Edmonton For Publication Week Of November 20th, 1922.

No Income Tax Next Year
There will be no provincial income tax legislation introduced at the coming session of the Legislature, according to advice sent by Premier Greenfield to the Calgary Board of Trade, in answer to an enquiry. The Premier has stated that it is not the intention of the government to advance this legislation at present.

More Rural Phones
As a result of a campaign launched by Hon. V. W. Smith, Minister of Telephones, there has been considerable increase in the number of rural phones now in use, and the statement is made that the government now controls 32,000 phones.

Seed Grain Being Sold
The surplus seed grain of the farmer of the province, which is being handled through the government cleaning plant at Edmonton is now offered for sale by the crops branch of the Department of Agriculture. Requests for this grain are now being received at the office of this branch and those who wish to purchase should apply there.

Big Dairy Convention
One of the largest dairy conventions ever held in Alberta is billed to take place at Calgary January 23 to 25, when the dairymen of all western Canada will meet there in annual conference. Delegates from the four provinces will be in attendance. The Alberta provincial dairy convention will be held at the same time, and a very large gathering of dairymen during that week is expected. The convention will discuss all branches of dairying and the problems attendant upon each. The recently inaugurated system of government grading of cream by the provincial department of agriculture, which has proved such a success, will be an interesting topic for discussion.

New Train Service Train service has now been inaugurated over the twelve-mile extension of the Alberta Government Railway west of Lacombe. There will be now three trains a week over the line from Lacombe to the new terminus and return.

New Irrigation Project
Work on the new United Irrigation project near Cardston has been completed, and the project will be in use next spring. The sale of $450,000 of debentures, which brought a premium of $10,000, will likely be sufficient to cover the cost of the project, without the necessity of issuing the further $75,000 at first contemplated. This will make the capital cost of the project about $22 an acre.

Many Exhibits at Chicago Alberta will have a considerable number of exhibits of seed grain at the International hay and grain show at Chicago next month. Already there are over 50 entries and as many more are expected.

Poultry Show
The provincial poultry show will be held in Edmonton during the week of January 15th, and the prize list is now in course of preparation.

Home for Feeble Minded Rapid progress is being made on the new home for feeble minded children which is being built just north of Edmonton, and it is expected that this institution will be ready for occupancy early in the new year. There are now 200 inmates ready to be housed in the new home. Occupational work will be a strong feature of the system of treatment for patients. Dr. W. J. Mc-Allister is to be the superintendent of the home, and he is now engaged in special training at the Waverly Institute in Massachusetts.

May Settle in Alberta
In view of the fact that a large number of British officers will be demobilized from the army in India shortly, and that these men have a small amount of capital and are desirous of securing land in the overseas dominions, an effort is being made to interest them in Alberta. Major F. Yates Brown, one of these officers, is now on a tour of Canada, and was in the province during the past week for the purpose of gathering information and investigating conditions.

Information for Russia An interested visitor to the department of agriculture at Edmonton last week was Mr. D. Borodin, of the Russian agricultural bureau in the city of New York, who is travelling through Canada gathering information regarding farming conditions and methods for the government of Russia, which is introducing some reforms in connection with farming in that country. Mr.
Borodin was greatly interested in the new co-operative seed marketing plan recently inaugurated by the department here, as well as the other co-operative schemes already in operation.

Parliamentary Member Passes Mr. R. C. Edwards, M.L.A. of Calgary, and famous as the editor of the "Calgary Eye opener," died at his home on Tuesday, Nov. 14th. Mr. Edwards was elected as one of the five Calgary members in the provincial elections of 1921. His death will necessitate a bye-election in Calgary.

Canada's Bible verse is Psalm 72:8: "He shall dominion also from sea to sea and from the river unto the ends of the earth." It is said that the name Dominion was suggested by this verse at the time of Confederation to credit to Sir Leonard Tilley.

FREE DISTRIBUTION OF SEED GRAIN TO WESTERN FARMERS

A free distribution of superior sorts of grain will be made during the coming winter to Canadian farmers by the Cereal Division of the Experimental Farm Branch, Ottawa. The samples will consist of spring wheat (about 5 lbs.), white oats (about 4 lbs.), barley (about 5 lbs.), field peas (not garden peas—about 5 lbs.), field beans (about 2 lbs.), flax for seed and flax for fibre (about 2 lbs.).

The Cereal Division of the Experimental Farm Branch has improved many of the old varieties of grain and introduced many new varieties. The best of them have been multiplied and propagated under direct supervision of responsible officers on the Experimental Farm, both east and west. This seed will form the bulk stock from which the various samples will be taken. The seed is therefore the purest and best that is obtainable. Of some of the more recent introductions, there is only a limited supply, so it would be advisable to apply as soon as possible for these.

Among the grains for distribution will be found the Liberty Maltless oats, an oat that is excellent for human use and to a limited extent for young livestock. Among the wheats, the most outstanding for distribution will be the Ruby wheat, a wheat that ripens from eight to ten days earlier than Marquis and is suitable for districts where Marquis is not early enough. This year among the barleys will be found Charlottetown No. 80. This is a two-rowed barley that has a tendency to drop its awns. The supply of this variety is very limited. It is hoped also to distribute Himalayan barley, a hullless variety which is a good yielder and suitable for young livestock. There will be only one variety of peas for distribution, namely Mackay Ottawa 25 which is a main crop pea and not suited to districts where early frosts occur.

The object of the distribution is twofold: first, that the farmer may get a small sample of good seed to start his seed plot; second that the Cereal Division may find out how their improved grains will behave under various conditions of soil and climate. Therefore it is necessary that all the information asked for on the application form should be fully answered. This also holds true with the report forms which each man is asked to fill out after he has grown the sample.

Application must be made on a printed form which will be supplied by the Cereal Division, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa. (No postage is required on letters so addressed.) No application forms will be supplied after February 15th, 1923. Farmers are advised to send at once for forms in order not to be disappointed, as in some cases the stock is limited.
The allotment of samples will be made in order of application. Only one sample will be sent to a farm.

RUSSIA INTERESTED IN BIRD PROTECTION

The protection of its migratory game birds is engaging the attention of the Russian Government and a request for assistance in drafting laws has been received by the Canadian National Parks branch which administers the Migratory Birds Convention Act in Canada from V. Generoso, Superintendent of the Experimental Hunting Station, Agriculture Scientific committee at Petrograd. The measures taken in Canada for the protection and propagation of wild life states Mr.
Generoso appear to be so desirable that in his report to the Russian Government he proposes to recommend the adoption of similar methods in his own country.

The protection in Russia of migratory game birds, especially the water fowl during the breeding season, will be of immense importance to the greater part of the countries in the eastern hemisphere. Birds from Europe, Asia portions of Africa and as far south as Australia, migrate to the great northern breeding grounds in Russia and a treaty similar to that entered into between Canada and the United States could have a salutary effect on bird life in the old world.

THE EDITOR RUMINATES!

The Editor sat in his office, —where he had but fled; and he wished that every last dead beat was in his grave—stone dead. His mind then wandered far away to the time when he should die, and his royal editorial soul go shooting to the sky; when he'd roam the fields of paradise and sail o'er Jasper seas and all things glorious would combine in his every sense to please. He thought how then he'd look across the great gulf, dark and drear, that yawn between his happy soul and those who swindled here; and when for hot water they would call, and in agony they'd sner, he'd shout to them: "Just quench your thirst with the DUE that's on your paper"—Ex.

An Episode in The Weinert Family

"It's a good idea, all right," said Pa and rose to his feet. "Here, you hold the bucket; I bet you might kick it over. It's a good idea if—Now let's see how much I've got—fifty and fifty's a dollar—dollar seventy-five and ten—No, I haven't got it."

"Look in your pocket, Pa."

"When Pa Weinert has fished one more quarter from a capacious pocket Claude became so excited that he spat milk on his everyday trousers. 'What'd I tell you Pa? with what I got it's a plenty!'"

Prudence dimmed the brightness of Pa's blue eyes. "I don't know Claude I don't know if we oughta. I haven't paid that bill o' Flexner's yet. It's a good idea all right, but I don't know as we can afford it."

But Claude had the money and was on his way. "I don't hurry, the stores'll be closed," he called back. "Say Pa, you make up something to tell me."

Now that prudence was put to rest Pa turned slyly back to his task, and Betty, had she looked round again and had she not been a cow, might have observed a grin of pleased anticipation on Pa's face.

THOMPSON-BASCHELL

A quiet little wedding was celebrated at the Methodist church by Rev. H. Bosworth on Wednesday evening last, when Miss Letty Bascshell and Mr. Frank Thompson, both of Kinross, were united in the bonds of matrimony. Only the contracting parties were present.

The Rev. H. Wilson celebrated the marriage last week of Miss Minnie Mansfield and Mr. Grant Hare.

That night at eight o'clock the Weinert family, washed and combed, not to say plastered, were sitting round in various attitudes of stiffness waiting for the surprise party to arrive. During the hour of more between supper and eight o'clock the nervous tension had not relaxed appreciably; rather, it must be admitted their strong family affection had suffered from an unaccustomed strain. In the first place Ma was hurt because her grown son had lingered in the alley with the boys on that evening of all evenings; for that was the reason Pa had affirmed, after the manner of the proverbial trooper, why Claude was late. She could not know that at seven o'clock her son had sprinted breathlessly down the alley with a carefully guarded box under his coat, that when he'd given the package into that good neighbour's care Mrs. Casey had exclaimed, "Ain't you the best son now! It's a grand idea Claude that's what it is." And when he came in late to supper that had turned cold and soggy Ma's complaining might soon have changed to tears except for her husband's soothing words of caution: "Now Ma, don't go and get yourself all worked up again."

There was further occasion for Ma's handily diplomacy when Ma started to change her dress for the party.

"Ma, Edny lamented. 'If you go and change your dress they'll just know you know!'"

"I can't help it. They ain't going to see me in this old calico dress. And anyway I can't act 'prised when I know Edny, I ain't made that way."

"I'll just be an old fizzle, Ma," Edny claimed so slyly daughter.

It was then that Pa became inspired. Quietly and ostentatiously he turned up the big hand of the kitchen clock. "It's two minutes to eight Ma, ain't no time for you to dress anymore. Git your darning an sit down as if you never suspected anything."

After a long five minutes Ma said: "Now you see I had plenty of time to dress. I'm going now; they will be late. I am going! This dress!"

"Sh-h-h Claude warned her excitedly. 'I hear em coming. Wait a minute. I'll get you a long spell of waiting. And then—'" followed Claude's words and all the while only the united family will kept Ma Weinert in her chair. Ma's dress was a steady state outside, then another and yet another until every board in the porch seemed to creak with its secret.

"My soul! I can't!" Ma began nervously.

A sharp knock interrupted her door swung open, and Edny's kind confederates trooped in. Each was red with suppressed giggles, and each bore a paper bag or a box from which came the delicate odor of pickles, ham sandwiches and jelly cake.

Ma's painful embarrassed silence served as an excellent counterfoil for amazement as the neighborhood humorist began "Well Miss Weinert ain't you going to ask us to stay awhile? We thought we'd come and pay you a call." The witticism released the pent-up merriment of the callers and hearty peals of laughter followed.

Apparently, however, Mrs. Casey was the real mistress of ceremonies.

"Don't you let 'em set down yet, Miss Weinert," she said clearing her dry throat. "Importantly, 'Miss Weinert, I have here—I wish to present to you a token! I ain't saying what it is, I ain't informing you where it came from maybe somebody who shall be nameless give it to me to give to you. Be that as it may, Miss Weinert, as I was saying we now give you on this here glad day this token and, and—our best respects—and happy returns, Miss Weinert."

"Happy returns," echoed the others Mrs. Casey awkwardly held out the gift.

Behold now, the box that had been hidden under Claude's coat as he had sprinted down the alley; behold fifteen kindly faces rosy grinning as they watched Ma's fingers struggling with the wrappings. Finally there came into view an elegant toilet box all lovely red outside and beautiful pale blue within; it contained a comb and brush and mirror with flowered backs and handles exactly like silver.

Above the hubbub of enthusiasm Ma's voice rose, high pitched, and tense. "Well I'm surprised! Why, I just declare to mercy, folks, I am surprised!"

At that her husband, who was bent as nearly double as his round body would allow, might have been heard to break into loud guffaws of laughter. But Claude was silent from his place by the kitchen door he was watching a shy little figure standing apart from the noisy group of friends. Edny's lips were tremulous, but her eyes were full of astonished joy. Claude's own eyes grew tender as he looked.

"Sh-h," he whispered, nudging his father. "Look, Pa, Look at the kid!"
